1. In mid-June 1951, the Neue Flak Kaserne on the northeast side of former General Litzmannstrasse, Koenigsberg (Kaliningrad), quartered a unit equipped with an undetermined number of tanks and artillery pieces. Five or six tanks were seen in the barracks yard. The Neue Polizei Kraftfahr Kaserne, southeast of the Neue Flak Kaserne, quartered a naval unit, which was said to be a naval school. The destroyed Trommelplatz Kaserne at the northern railroad station had not been reconstructed after the war. *
2. MVD officers and EM were quartered in a large five-story building on Gluck uliza, west of the northern railroad station, which was still under construction in June 1951. Other MVD officers were quartered in a large five-story building on the other side of the same street. An MVD office was located in the former city police headquarters on former General Litzmannstrasse near the northern railroad station.
3. Garages for MVD vehicles were under construction on the premises of the former Ostpreussen Plant, north of the city police headquarters, in June 1951. Thirty truck garages had been completed by that time.
